ANNOUNCEMENTS

MESSAGE FROM FATHER SHAWN

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord,
You will read this after I have returned from being away, but I want to thank you for taking the time to read Cardinal Dolan's homily from the Vigil Mass for Life three Thursdays ago. I have been a priest long enough now to have heard from parishioners how difficult it can be to accept various aspects of Catholic doctrine and practice. Some matters of doctrine and practice are of higher rank than others, but it is for our individual and common good that we examine and rejoice in God's loving, creative hand being at work among us and throughout all space and time.
In the words of a priest based in Kentucky: "Catholic doctrine has various levels that require different responses. Some things require an assent of faith. Some things require that Catholics firmly retain and embrace them. Other things require a religious submission of mind and will. And, still other things must only be observed." I do not want to say to anyone, no matter where one falls on the spectrum: "This is how it is. If you do not like it, you can hit the pavement. And don't dare call yourself a Catholic anymore while you're at it!" Each of us has struggles with what we have been called to believe and to practice, but I hope that we as a parish always work to have mutual trust. We might not always be in mutual agreement and understanding, but I hope that we have mutual love and mutual trust. Let deeper agreement and understanding flow from there.
Yours in Christ,
Father Shawn
